

Boards and Commissions vacancies in Snohomish County

Boards and Commissions serve as a bridge between the community and government, ensuring oversight and raising awareness on important community issues. They provide a setting for citizens to volunteers their time and energy in government and on behalf of the community to advocate for disability issues.

The Arc of Snohomish County encourages individuals and family members to participate on boards and committees. You can be a voice and a leader for developmental disabilities, and as decisions are taken in your community. The Arc can provide support, resources and tools to help you be an effective and successful disability advocate on local Boards and Commissions. For information contact: Jamie Coonts at Jamie@arcsno.org | 425-258-2459 x104.
